ABSTRACT

This teacher resource packet includes a 20-minute video, a poster for classroom display, and a teacher's guide for introducing historic and cultural information about Israel. The guide, designed for middle and high school students but adaptable for use with younger students, encourages students to place Israel in the context of U.S. and world history. Information about issues vital to the area and the world is provided. Questions for initiating classroom discussion and questions for individual student research are included. Activities are suggested for exploring: (1) "Geography"; (2) "History and The Search for Peace from 1700 B.C. to 1948 A.D."; (3) "History and the Search for Peace from 1948 to Present"; (4) "People and Lifestyles"; (5) "Economy"; and (6) "Government." The interdisciplinary activities may be presented as independent lessons or combined as a thematic unit. A bibliography is provided. (MM)
